OUR RECORD UPHELD

The battleship Ohio, built in San Francisco, made her first appearance in this harbor yesterday, arriving off Tompkinsville, S. I., from Gibraltar. Since early in 1905, when she went into commission, the Ohio has been in the Pacific and on the Asiatic station. She holds the steaming record of the world for a battleship, 50,000 miles, and comes here unscratched and sound, with the exception of some twisted propeller blades, which she got from striking something in the Suez Canal.-New York World, Dec. 2.
